Press Release

The Liberty Township Tea Party holds their first local meeting at the Liberty Township Fire Station on State Route 747 to an overflow crowd of over 90 people!

Liberty Township, OH, July 13, 2009: The newly formed Liberty Township Tea Party has held their first local meeting at the fire station on State Route 747 on July 13, 2009. An overflow crowd of over 90 Liberty Township residents caused the meeting to be moved from the original room to the equipment bay. The featured speaker for this event was Mike Wilson, the founder of the Cincinnati Tea Party organization. The Liberty Township group also announced their new website at www.libertytownshipteaparty.org. Their next meeting is scheduled for the Princeton Pike Church of God on Hamilton-Mason Road on Monday July 29, 2009 at 7:00 PM.
